Dear Nili,

We secured the following firm invitation for Ehud from Leaders and Company Ltd. that owns and operates THISDAY Newspaper Group to speak at their event on Thursday, December 12, 2013 in Lagos, Nigeria. We have secured an honorarium of $100,000,inclusive of airfare, home ground transportation, and the cost of any travel visas needed. In addition, Leaders and Company will provide hotel accommodations and non-airfare related expenses as outlined below.

 PLEASE NOTE: Many of our speakers, including President Clinton (who has done 4 events for this sponsor!), Governor Schwarzenegger and others, have spoken for THISDAY previously. With all of our past engagements, THISDAY has always paid their events in full, but they do often pay us at the last minute. In addition, events with THISDAY are not as organizationally 'crisp' as an event in New York with Goldman Sachs for example, but, once you look past the disorganization, THISDAY puts on a great event that all of our speakers who have participated in the past have enjoyed. We wanted to make you aware of this small risk associated with THISDAY from the outset. We of course would never expect Ehud to travel to Nigeria unless we were paid in advance and we had full confidence that the logistics were all in place, but it usually does come down to the last minute with this group. This is a unique host in that regard, but as I said we have been doing business with them for many years and they have always paid in full.

Please let me know if this is something Ehud would like to accept. Below are the specific details of the invitation, including the Agenda for the event:

Event Date: Thursday, December 12, 2013

Alternate Dates: Saturday, December 14, 2013

Honorarium and Travel Expenses: $100,000, inclusive of airfare, home ground transportation expenses, and visa fees. In addition, Leaders and Company will provide hotel accommodations, ground transportation in Lagos, and meals and incidentals for two (2).

Agenda:
 Times below are approximate and will be finalized within 1-2 weeks of the engagement.*
7:00PM - 8:00PM: VIP Reception
8:00PM - 10:30PM: Dinner with Speech and Q&A Program

Taping: The panel session will be taped and shown on Nigerian TV and featured online. Any footage used post-event will be pre-approved by you.

Press: This event is open to the press. Pre-approved journalists from the print and electronic media will be in attendance.

Nature of Event: This event is a celebration of the current Group Managing Director and Chief Executive Officer of Access Bank, Mr Aigboje Aig-Imoukhuede. He is credited with the transformation of the bank, making it one of the top 5 banks in Nigeria. He will be stepping down from his post and this event is meant to honor his leadership and his direct impact on the financial industry in Nigeria. The conference will bring together some of the world's best known minds in politics, business, academia, and the world of sports. We have vetted him using public sources, and he is a successful and prominent banker in Nigeria. As with all bankers, even US bankers, there have been some business controversies, but nothing disqualifying. Let me know if you want further information.
